2. Characteristic spirit and general objectives of the school

We are a co-educational, child-centred rural school set in an idyllic location beside Ballinacarriga Lake and Castle.

Our school is of Roman Catholic patronage and we intend to foster respect and acceptance of all creeds and races.

Our aim is to provide an educational, stimulating and caring environment in which each child feels happy, safe, secure and confident.

We wish to enable each child to reach their full potential by fostering mental health & wellbeing, self-esteem and a sense of achievement through friendship, academics, sports and extracurricular activities.
